

SouthEast GoldMine 2010

Youth Leadership School

August 8-14, 2010*

*dates changed from 8/1-7 as of April 16, 2010

We begin at 4 pm Sunday and conclude at noon on Saturday.

An intense five-day school for youth where you will:

- Develop your own personal creed.
- Deepen your understanding of Unitarian Universalist heritage and values.
- Expand your skills for growing healthy groups.
- Explore paths of worship.
- Hone leadership skills so you can better heal our world.
- Learn to be a more effective leader and communicator.

Oak Ridge, TN

Oak Ridge, Unitarian Universalist Church

We will cook our own meals, using the church's kitchen.
Showers are available across the street at the Civic Center.

Food is provided. Community is created.

Bring your sleeping bag, toothbrush, and open mind.

Come prepared to dig down deep and leave ready to share your gifts with the world.

These six will change your life
and your community!

Who should come?

Youth, ages 14-18, who are active in their home congregations &

- have worked on a committee or held an office
- have taken part in a worship service
- have attended a meeting
- have felt moved by a justice issue
- have organized anything
- have participated in a discussion
- have been involved in a conflict
- have wanted to do any of these things

You can expect to gain the confidence and competence to put your faith into action and to take a more meaningful role in your congregation, district, and wider community. If you want to grow in leadership and in living your Unitarian Universalism, SouthEast GoldMine is for you!
